STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

Ben Bildsten ('20) loves using maps as a way to explore and learn about a place without even having to go there. He loves how his peers in the geography department aren't competitive, but collaborative. He has been able to use his geography knowledge to map the favelas of Rio de Janeiro.

GEOGRAPHY GOES BOWLING

Where: RANHAM Bowling Center
492 Hamline Avenue S.
Saint Paul, MN 55116

When: Friday, Feb 7 from 6:30-8:30pm

What: Come join your fellow students, professors and faculty in a game or two of bowling. Food and shoe rentals provided, drinks available for purchase. Please email kigin@macalester.edu if you need bus tokens! Part of Lanegran Days 2020.

WANT TO GET INVOLVED?

Volunteer opportunities (email stratt@macalester.edu)

- Interested in helping to volunteer for MUGS (Midwestern Undergraduate Geography Symposium)? We will need volunteers the day of the event to help with sign in, set up, clean up and other tasks. If you aren't presenting, volunteering is a great way to get involved!
- Want to help prep or run the Maps@Nite event? We could use your help to run a station or help prep materials before the event!

Other opportunities:

- Looking for a work-study? Email Laura Kigin at kigin@macalester.edu if you are interested in working in the geography department office!

GOINGS ON IN GEOGRAPHY

We had a great turn-out at the Spring Geography Lunch! Thanks to everyone involved.
